

This is a detailed topographic map of the Bloomington area in Illinois, showing the Mississippi River, major roads, and surrounding towns like Jefferson, St. Genevieve, and St. Mary. The map includes a grid system with coordinates and labels for various landmarks and roads.

Geographic Features:

- Rivers: The Mississippi River is shown flowing along the eastern border of the map.
- Towns and Cities: Labeled towns include Jefferson, Bloomington, St. Genevieve, St. Mary, Ozora, Minnith, Avon, Coffman, Miller, Sprott, and Weingarten.
- Landmarks: Notable landmarks include Harlow Island, Magnolia Hollow CA, Hickory Canyons NA, Horton Farm 3 Conservation Area, Hawk SP, Pickle Springs NA, Mark Twain National Forest, and Beaver Island.
- Roads: Major roads are shown with route numbers and names, including US-55, US-140, and various state and local roads.
- Grid System: The map features a grid with coordinates ranging from 90°10'0"W to 90°30'0"W and 37°40'0"N to 38°10'0"N.

The map is oriented with North at the top and includes a scale bar indicating distances in miles and kilometers.

Revised - March 2026